

What is a Lioness?

By District 27-D2 ADP Myrna Kelley

(Note: I wrote this a long time ago, but would like to share it for all the Lioness clubs in Wisconsin. Enjoy.)

She's a woman who can always find time to better her community.
She's a woman who gets things done.
She's a Wisconsin Lioness member.

She's the future of her community with goodwill in her heart.
She's the heartbeat of downtown looking for tomorrow.
She's a woman who gets things done.
She's a Wisconsin Lioness member.

She can be a secretary, teacher, nurse, cook, business woman, retiree or just a plain citizen.
She's a woman who gets things done.
She's a Wisconsin Lioness member.

She's a friend of education, hospitals, libraries, Kids in Care or the handicapped.
She's the sparkplug of her community for the benefit of others.
She's a woman who gets things done.
She's a Wisconsin Lioness member.

She keeps dreams of her town alive.
Her enthusiasm generates progress while she lives by the golden rule.
She's a woman who gets things done.
She's a Wisconsin Lioness member.

She likes progress, good schools, fine churches, modern hospitals, honest government, happy citizens and peaceful nations.
She believes in America, teamwork, hard work, loyalty and friendship.
She's a woman who gets things done.
She's a Wisconsin Lioness member.

She's a community coordinator, community booster, and community friend, ambassador of goodwill and carrier of friendship.
She has the courage to take responsibility, the courage to decide things and the courage to say yes or no.
She's a woman who gets things done.
She's a Wisconsin Lioness member.

She solves problems, serves on committees, greets strangers and helps make her community grow and prosper.
She's her community's best advertisement.
She's a woman who gets things done.
She's a Wisconsin Lioness member.

She can be found many places: sidewalk sales, pancake breakfasts, selling mints, eye screening, decorating anywhere in town or at the library delivering books on women's issues.
She's a woman who gets things done.
She's a Wisconsin Lioness member.

You'll see her baking pies, planting flower barrels or cross stitching squares for a quilt.
You'll see her presenting scholarships, money to Girl Scouts, WLF and Leader Dog.
You'll see her at conventions making plans for next year.
She's a woman who gets things done.
She's a Wisconsin Lioness member.

She firmly believes she lives in the best town, in the best state, in the best nation in the world.
She's a first class citizen, a warm-hearted neighbor, the most valuable of friends.
She's a woman who gets things done.
She's a Wisconsin Lioness member!!!
